

IECAST goes to South Central Los Angeles - April thru August 2015

LAGUNA HILLS, CA, May 31, 2015 – IECAST will be conducting its third of four training sessions with the leaders of Concerned Citizens of South Central Los Angeles (CCSLA).

Noreen McClendon, CEO of Concerned Citizens retained the services of IECAST to provide training to key affiliate organizations to better serve the community. This service was requested by CEO McClendon, following the many requests she received from the students of the Self Determination Re-Entry Initiative, overseen by Melinda Williams, Director; and Skipp Townsend, Director of 2nd Call. All organizations are affiliates of CCSLA.

The specific results of IECAST's efforts that caused the above stated organizations to retain their services is in recognition of IECAST's five-year track record of providing exemplary services for female offenders in California, resulting in a 2.9% recidivism as compared to 67% state wide.
